Founded in 1864 as a craftsman business

Milestones in Mahler’s history - more than 150 years

Mahler family sold their business, the company was split in two separate independent companies, today called:
- Mahler AGS
- Mahler Industrial Furnaces

Mahler AGS has built the very first hydrogen plant which was operated unattended

Mahler AGS has built the very first hydrogen plant which was operated unattended

Today Mahler AGS is one of the leading companies for medium sized gas generation plants. In the meantime Mahler has sold more than 4500 plants in more than 70 countries.

JF Mahler GmbH & Co. KG.

First activities in adsorption technology and steam-reforming of hydrocarbons

Activities for nitrogen-PSA started

Mahler was one of the leading companies in Germany for the know how of metallurgical treatment

First commercial hydrogen plant

First commercial oxygen plant

Mahler started with production of kitchen stoves

Manufacturer of industrial furnaces for various heat treatments of metals esp. in protective atmosphere JF Mahler GmbH & Co. KG.

Mahler would like to thank all our customers for their trust in our technology.